

As President of the University of South Florida, Betty Castor removed Islamic Jihad operative Sami Al-Arian. And Betty Castor

Betty Castor Claims:

"As university president, I took action to remove a suspected terrorist from our campus."

Betty Castor Campaign Ad

The Would-Be Senator and the Terrorist

By Bill West - FrontPageMagazine.com, August 27, 2004

“[Sami] Al-Arian, accused of being a leading supporter of the Palestinian Islamic Jihad terrorist organization while employed at USF, faces trial in January in Tampa on Federal terrorism charges. Castor has claimed repeatedly she did all she could about Al-Arian while president of USF.”

Bill West, the retired Immigration and Naturalization Services agent who initiated the criminal investigation into the Sami Al-Arian case in 1994 does not think that Betty Castor did “all she could in the Al-Arian affair.”

